Section 5.2(c) The Employer may refer employees to the Union for purposes of having their names placed on the sign industry out of work list. The Union agrees to place any such persons on the out of work list and to make referrals to the Employer without regard to Union membership or whether the applicant has worked under a Union contract in the past.

Section 5.2(d) The Employer has the right to reject an applicant for any lawful reason and to designate the applicant or any other employee as ineligible for employment with the Employer. The exercise of this discretion is not subject to the grievance/arbitration procedures under the Agreement.
